FIRE 1465 - Fire Officer 1

Prepares students to perform the duties of the first line company officer. This includes supervising a single fire suppression unit or a small administrative unit within the fire department. Students learn about prioritizing multiple demands of the company, delegating tasks to subordinates, performing administrative duties relating to the individual companies or stations, supervisory duties and emergency scene functions.