Firefighter I (NFPA 1001)
This 112 hour course provides the minimum education required to function as a firefighter under direct supervision on the fire ground. Course includes, but not limited to: OSHA topics, Self-Contained Breathing Apparatus, Firefighter Survival & Safety, Fire Behavior, Ladders, Forcible Entry, Hose Handling, Fire Streams, Ventilation, Fire Control, and 20 hours of Hazmat Operations. This course will prepare students for the Minnesota Fire Service Certification Board written and Practical exam.

Firefighter II (NFPA 1001)
This 28 hour course provides the knowledge to perform under general supervision on the fire ground. After completion the firefighter may lead a group of equal or lesser trained personnel though a specific task. Course includes, but not limited to: Flammable Gases, Automatic Sprinklers, Fire Cause and Determination, Fire Alarms, Auto Extrication, Report Writing, Communications, Assisting Special Rescue Teams, Fire Prevention and Public Education. This course will prepare the student for the Minnesota Fire Service Certification Board written and practical exam.